Bosnian sharp-haired hound – called barak is next to Tornjak, our only Bosnian-Herzegovinian autochthonous dog race in the field of cynology (the science of dogs in the world). It was previously known as "Celtic hound", "Illyrian hound", and "Bosnian barrack". Under the name "Bosnia-Herzegovina Short-haired Hound - Barak", it has appeared since January 15, 1973, when it was entered under number 155 in the FCI (International Cynological Federation) book of standards.

EUROPE 2023 PEACE - the greatest value of humanity

"The world needs a new symbol of peace, which unites all nations. It is inspired by the symbol of the Celtic love knot, with intertwined hearts. The color palette illustrates all the nations of the world. Adding hands with intertwined fingers conveys a message of mutual respect" - the authors pointed out.
