Address format

The Bahamas do not apply a postcode system or home delivery system. Mail is dispatched via Post Office Boxes. Poste Restante service is available for persons who do not have a Post Office Box.

The P.O. Box number should be preceded by a space or a dash “-“ sign and the two letter abbreviation of the Post Office.

The island name or the island abbreviation can be used after the name of the locality, separated by a comma but it is not a mandatory element of the address.
